Re: US v. OKPARAEKE 54 17 Cr. 225 (NSR); OKPARAEKE
v. US 23-cv-3353

Dear CHIEF JUDGE,

As of the day I wrote this letter I have yet to receive a response from your Court about my previous letter. I wrote to the Chief Judge of the SDNY asking for help in obtaining Ex Parte communications from Judge Román and the US Attorneys prosecuting me. I asked my judge to provide them and he refused to even docket my requests. There is no question that Román has engaged in forbidden Ex Parte communications that go beyond simple ministerial functions; a CJA lawyer provided me with some sample emails that were, frankly, impermissible.

I asked previously for my judge to be ordered to provide any-and-all Ex Parte communications. I also asked for my case to be sent to the assignment committee. I again renew this request. If I do not receive a response to this ^{letter} ~~email~~ I will be forced to send the lewd Ex Parte communications to the NY Post, NY Times, and Wall Street Journal.

Regards,
